QBeez utilizes Usage Data to track how You use the App (collectively, Usage Data) so that we can continue to improve the App's overall functionality and your experience with the App (including, without limitation, when You (a) link Your QBeez Account to Your Social Media account(s) so that You can track your QBeebs and other items in Your QBeez Account using Your Facebook or Twitter account, respectively; (b) purchase Merchandise or otherwise make payments for a product or service using Your credit card information; or (c) use any interactive features of the QBeez Offerings). In addition, Usage Data collected may be used to help identify and to contact You, including via text message, if You have Won a Prize in connection with the App.

Further, Usage Data may be combined with other information in our databases to track, analyze and market You as part of new or existing products or services, or to monitor trends in connection with the App. We may share Usage Data collected, either in aggregate or to individually identifiable users, with advertisers, sponsors, promotional partners or other third parties (as more fully described in the QBeez Mobile Application End-User License Agreement and Terms and Conditions). Usage Data may be collected using information tracking and analysis software provided by a third party. QBeez utilizes standard Internet protocol (IP) addresses to analyze traffic and logs, but the IP address, alone, may not provide sufficient information to identify You. Additional web server log information may be provided to third parties by the third party that owns or maintains this web site. The third party, however, may not tie this information to You. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.
