9:31 am: mohd rehan is doing a flawless job. thanks for the kind words. i was afraid that he would fail to make me understand, now, i am also going to explain to you, today was the first day of the entrance examination and many more students were waiting outside the examination hall, one student lost his heart and had to be helped. he was trying to take off his blood-stained shirt. it was touching to see the students so concerned. 7:46 am: i was watching a private home video of an old-time hindi movie, filmishd wherein there is a scene from a dance performance, i didn't know that there was no shortage of dance performances in india. there were many impressive feats in those old days. i wouldn't have agreed for that during my school days. 5:56 am: there are 3 hours before the beginning of the examination. do i still have time to buy something to eat? i am sure it will be necessary for the examination. it is so taxing that you cannot concentrate in an examination in the morning. 5:47 am: while travelling to the examination hall, we passed by a restaurant, it was then that i asked my roommate to order for me because he could not make any decision. my roommate chose chicken curry. 5:37 am: travelling here is more difficult than it is in metropolitan cities, public transport is not good here, when i first bought a new phone, i bought a sim card. i am not going to use it in the examination hall. [] we have to see that, you are the only film to have come out of the indian cinema that has an anti-national sentiment, but don't get carried away by it. no one has the right to speak against india. this was an antiindia attack and if someone has the guts then let them, we are the first line of defense for india. on films for everyone: one of the most common problems in educational films of the past several decades has been that their main reason for being has been to convey a point or idea. this has resulted in the kinds of films i listed in this post as well as many others. the typical film does not wait around for the viewer to arrive at a "solution" before ending. [] on films for all ages: oscarwinning "award-winning" the tale of peter rabbit is a great holiday classic for all ages. it is a cute story about a little bunny and a fox who share the same carrot patch. [] on films on children: i like wild kratts, a series of short videos on environmental education, the wild kratts series shows how everyday things like mudslides, avalanches and hurricanes are really caused by environmental causes. [] the houston-based texas civil rights project is currently investigating thousands of cases involving alleged abuses of the state's civil commitment law, in a recent case, a man claims that he developed a drinking problem after being placed on a state psychiatric hold, now, he is suing the judge who signed the order, rights activists in myanmar are doing their best to educate the public about the brutality of the country's military council, while the burmese authorities deny any wrong doing, in recent years evidence has begun to mount from inside and outside the country that the country's military has abused their citizens, yet the country's leadership remains in place. 5ec8ef588b
